Common command Lines in Mac

`pwd`- Find out the location/name of the folder currently opened in your terminal window.

`ls` – List the files and folders of the location currently opened in terminal.

`cd` - Change directory. Allows you to move in your disk from one location to another.

`mkdir`- Creates a new folder under the currently opened location.

`touch` - Create a file

Common command Lines in Windows

cd - Change of directory

dir - list directory content mkdir - create a new directory fsutil / echo- Create a new file

Github

- `git init` – Initialize a local Git repository
- `git Clone` - Create a local copy of a remote repository
- `git status -` check status of the git operations
- `git add [file-name.txt] -` Add a file to the staging area
- `git add -A -` Add all new and changed files to the staging area
- `git commit -m "[commit message]" –` Commit changes
- `git push -` Push a branch to your remote repository
- `git pull` – Update local repository to the newest commit